

CONNECTED TO THE PAST

Anyone who has ever ventured down St. Nicholas Street will certainly remember it. St. Nicholas is a beautiful and quiet, tree-lined, cobblestoned street right in the heart of downtown Toronto. The street is home to charming 19th century cottages, each named after a different tree native to the area.

We have named our suites after the cottages of St. Nicholas as a tribute to the history of the street.

A Classic Location Is Always In Style